"Diamonds Going Up"

is the announcement in the jewelry trade—

"The expected increase in the price of rough diamonds by the Syndicate in London was announced Monday in cables received in New York by some of the principal diamond cutters of this country."

Diamond prices down 20 to 30 per cent.

At Wanamaker's only!

This good fortune, in the face of advancing wholesale prices, comes because we have taken over the mounted stocks of two diamond houses who sacrificed profits to effect a quick sale that they might devote all their interests to selling loose stones.

Stirred Room That He Might Die in It
A man believed to be C. A. Lambert, a chauffeur, of Glen Cove, L. I., was found dead in bed in a room of the Pension Chevalier at No. 528 Seventh Avenue, yesterday. He registered there Tuesday and asked not to be disturbed. A glass on the stand near the bed apparently contained cyanide of potassium.

Acidity, heartburn, belching, pain and dyspepsia just vanish.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eruptions of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which don't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.—Adv.

WAX WAR SHOW UNDER BAN.

Bowery Manager Arraigned by Police, Voluntarily Stops Exhibit.

"The Horrors of War," depicted by wax figures dressed as soldiers, with breasts mutilated by bullets, which have been shown in a Bowery museum the last week, was terminated to-day because of letters written to the Board of Health suggested the figures were too gruesome.

Police Sgt. Wilson of the Elizabeth Street Precinct arraigned the manager of the museum before City Magistrate Marsh in the Centre Street Police Court to-day for displaying the figures. Wilson showed the Magistrate a letter received from Robert Orr, complaining of the exhibition.

"What is so dreadful about the figures?" Magistrate Marsh asked Wilson. "The glare of the upturned eyes," replied the policeman. "They even gave me the shudders."

"If that is so," volunteered the manager, John Pierce, "I'll stop the show."

On Pierce's promise Magistrate Marsh Marsh discharged him.
